

CAREER OPPORTUNITIES

When considering relocating or expanding your business, it's important to choose a region where prospective talent — and their partners and families — will be able to find high-quality employment. The Greater Wichita region offers job opportunities in a diverse array of industries and occupations. From advanced manufacturing and IT to healthcare and logistics, companies across all fields will find individuals with market-ready skills, passion, and creativity to enable success.

Are you considering a move to the Greater Wichita region? Discover what makes the Greater Wichita region an unexpectedly amazing place to live, work, and play at ChooseWichita.com and find Available Jobs.

World-Class Industries and Employment Options

Greater Wichita is home to Koch Industries and Cargill Protein Group, two of the world's largest privately held companies. The area is recognized for its high concentration of advanced manufacturing and high-tech jobs, with hundreds of businesses serving as suppliers to the world's largest aerospace companies.

- Wichita ranks #4 in manufacturing jobs as a percentage of all jobs [Lightcast, 2021]
- Greater Wichita's high-tech sector includes leading aerospace firms, chemical manufacturers, and information technology firms.
- Wichita is a regional center for advanced healthcare, with 17 acute care and free-standing specialty hospitals, offering career opportunities across healthcare spectrum.
- Employers enjoy an ascending pipeline of talent with one-of-a-kind global research facilities, including the National Institute for Aviation Research (NIAR) and Wichita State University's Innovation Campus.

- The diversity of office locations in the 10-county region gives both employers and employees a choice of workplaces, including downtown Wichita's thriving urban hub, high-end office parks, suburban settings, and expansive rural land.

- Learn more about the following Key Industries of the Greater Wichita region:

Advanced Manufacturing and Materials
Plastics and Composites
Aerospace
MRO
Agriculture
Energy
Healthcare
IT Systems and Support
Cybersecurity
Transportation and Logistics

- Explore our list of major regional Employers.