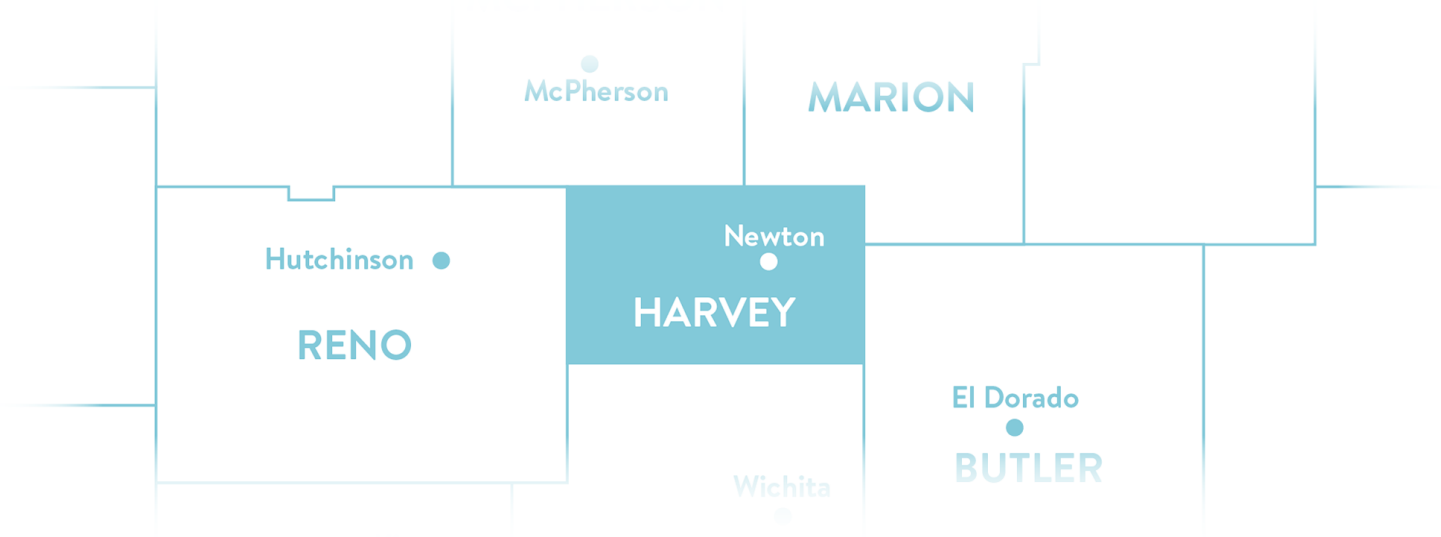
HARVEY COUNTY

Located just 10 miles north of Wichita, Harvey County features a diverse economy that encompasses four major industry sectors: manufacturing, health care services and social assistance, construction and educational services.



Manufacturing accounts for 24% of the county's employment and is home to companies including Agco, and Excel Industries. The county is home to many industrial and business parks providing opportunities for businesses to grow.

Beginning as a railroad hub for the Texas cattle trade, industry has continued to thrive in Harvey County. With two Class I railroads, Burlington Northern Santa Fe (BNSF) and Union Pacific, along with other local short line services, rail transportation serves a vital role in the county's economy and one of the largest employers. Located in Newton, the Kansas Logistics Park is one of only a few BNSF Certified Sites in the Midwest.

Harvey County is a prime location for road transportation as well. Located along I-135, which provides direct access to both coasts along with Canada and Mexico through I-35 and I-70.

Overall, Harvey County has an affordable cost of living compared to the rest of the nation. The composite Cost-of-Living index for Harvey County is 87, while the national average is 100.

County Data

Population	34,429
Land area	540
Average population density	64
Median age	39.5
High School Graduate or Higher	91%
Some College, No Degree	25.3%
Associate Degree	8.3%
Bachelor Degree or Higher	31%
Average 1-Way commute to work (min)	18.9
Civilian labor force	16,990
Unemployment rate	2.9%
Unemployment	494
Number of business establishments	765
Employees	13,933
Average annual pay	$38,028
Median household income	$56,051

Sources: 2019 Population Estimates for the 10-County Region; 2010 Census; American Community Survey 5-Year Estimates 2014-2018; Bureau of Labor Statistics - Local Area Unemployment Statistics; Bureau of Labor Statistics - Quarterly Census of Wages 2018 Average

Major Employers

- AGCO
- USD 373 Newton Unified School District
- Mid-Continent Cabinetry
- Newton Medical Center
- Excel Industries
- Park Electrochemical
- Prairie View

Contact

Beth Shelton
Director Harvey County Economic Development
P (800) 648.7759
Beth@HarveyCoEDC.org

Related Links

Halstead, KS
Harvey County Economic Development Council, Inc.
Hesston, KS
Newton, KS